HELLO

I am a business consultant with 15 years experience at Amazon, other tech companies, my own business and the UN. I would be happy to support you in my areas of expertise:

- Data-driven business solutions (customer research, business development, productivity improvements, digitalization)
- Communications (B2B marketing, public affairs, reputational campaigns, positioning and brand, content design)
- Complex project development and management (cross-team, cross-functional, international, ambiguous environments)

SERVICES

Business Solutions

How I can help you:

I can develop a custom solution for your business challenge which combines analytics, creativity and simplicity:

- Development or reviewing a business model for your product or service
- Translation of your idea into action
- Designing a business development strategy for a specific business goal
- Establishing partnerships with private or public sector for joint campaigns
- Improving the productivity of your business through digitalization and mechanisms

Reference projects:

- Concept creation for Amazon's Small Business Accelerator programmes which digitize SME for free across DE, UK, IT, ES and SE in partnership with public sector and associations, reaching over 130.000 SME in Europe. Public reference: Amazon Blog.
- Programme design of the Selling Partner Voice programme, which connects Amazon's Selling Partners in Europe with policymakers, enabling small business testimonials at ministerial and OECD level. Public reference: Post by Selling Partner
- Development of a lean feedback mechanism to obtain and process feedback from European SME selling on Amazon, leading to structured feedback from tens of thousands of SME for services improvement
- Drafting and review of numerous business development proposals at Amazon and my own company Fog Depot
- Improving productivity in several teams by introducing simple tools for project management, document collaboration and file management, AI automations, knowledge management, email marketing and insights generation

Testimonials

Eirini Zafeiratou, Vice President Global Public Policy & Regulation at Bolt: "Anna has excellent structural and analytical skills, a quick grasp of detail combined with an ability to join the dots in order to solve bigger underlying problems. Most importantly, Anna has grit, is tenacious and will give everything she has to solve a problem...(...) She led the initial set up and scale up of the Amazon Small Business accelerator in Germany and expanded the programme across Europe representing the company in Brussels, in front of the European Commission DG Enterprise. Hundreds of thousands of companies have benefited from the accelerators to date (...) Anna is an overachiever a pleasure to work and a big asset for any team to have."
